

Please continue to limit the number of media outlets that can be owned per market by individual corporations. You have a duty to listen to the public, which is strongly and uniformly opposed to easing regulations!